

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Technicut Ltd is committed to preventing pollution by reducing our energy consumption and minimising waste wherever possible through the continual improvement of our processes.

To support this, the company will maintain its management systems which will be adopted by every level of the business, ensuring we comply with all applicable legal, regulatory & other requirements.

Our goals, measures and realistic targets will be established and monitored regularly to provide us with objective data on our performance and to identify improvements.

Signed:

Date: 25/02/2015

David Fothergill
Managing Director